Dawson's Editorial-The State Figures.
Republished from the Intelligencer of the 27th. The fiscal year of 1882 closes with the end of this month. What will be the condition of the State treasury? This question is not of easy answer, from the fact that no seport of the Auditor has been published since his report of 1879-80. We know, however, that the State owes the School fund (at least) $127,511 48. In the Governor's message to the last Legislature, we are told that he incurred an additional debt of $50,000, which he horrowed of the Wheeling banks on the 31 of June and the 30th of September

These two items aggregate a debt $207

Undoubtedly this debt has increase since then. The Auditor in his last published repor (see Report of 1879-Se, p. 33) estimate the receipts of this year for general State purposes at $313,500. But the Legislature at its last session largely over-run this amount in its appro priations, the aggregate of which was $500, 927 46, as follows:

2,672 5

.. $ 500,927 4 In the general appropriation bills is in cluded $33,000 to refund to counties, county and district delinquent taxes and taxes paid by railway companies into the treasury at the Capitol. By reference to page 600 of the Acts of '82, (see heading "County and District Taxes,") it will be seen that no specific sum is attached to the appro priations for these purposes. But in his estimate probable charges on the treasury for 1882, (see Auditor's Report for 1879-80, p. 31), the Auditor estimates that it will require $33,000 to pay these appropriations

The amount of the appropriations to be paid this year is, then, $500,927.46; the re-ceipts are $340,530; and the deficit is, there fore, $157,397.46, which must be (or ha been) provided for by making loans.

Adding this deficit of $157,397 47 to the previous debt of $207,511 48 and we have a total debt of $364,908 94. Allowing liberally for an underestimate of the receipts of this year, we cannot see how the debt is less than $300,000 00 anyhow.

ces this explain why it was that the Auditor, last winter, refused to furnish a statement showing the condition of the treasury, though requested twice by resolu tion of the Senate (see S. J. for 1882, pp 55

Does it also explain why a re-assessment of the real estate was thought necessary

A JOINT DISCUSSION.

Between thetwo Candidates for Congres in the second District—The Unexpected Littleness of Mr. Wilson, the Democr tie Candidate. ROMNEY, W. VA., September 26.

The death like slumber into which the politicians of Hampshire county had fallen, was broken to-day.

John W. Mason, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, would address the people of Hampshire at Romney to day. Shortly before the speaking begar W. L. Wilson, the Democratic candidate made his appearance and asked for a divi sion of time, with Mr. Mason which was made his appearance and asked for a division of time, with Mr. Mason which was cordially granted. The result of the contest was a complete vindication of Republican principals. Mr. Wilson is a fluent speaker, but manages to entirely conceal his ideas. He made a very bitter speech. If he really entertains the views of the good Republicans of West Virginia expressed here to-day, he is a very poor man to educate the sons of Republicans at the University. He should either stop his vilifications of the Republicans of the State, or resign as President of the University. The Republicans of the State do not desire to assist in paying a man a salary of $2,500 per annum while he goes around the State abusing them. As is the practice with Democratic orators, he very adroitly avoided expressing any opinion on the tariff question, although expressed time and again by Mr. Mason todo so. He condemned it in one breath and approved the Republican dectrine on that subject in the next. He left the question without letting any one know what he does believe. He only knew he was a Democrat and came to speak to the people of a "reunited and triumphant Democracy." In other words, he had heard the Hampshire county Democraey were, not altogethe harmonious, that there are a large, number of free and ocracy were not altogethe harmonious that there are a large number of free and that there are a large number of free and independent Democrats in Hampshire who decline to cat the plum prepared for them by boss Davis. Old Hampshire county is a had place for bosses.

Alr. Mason's speech was a plain, straightforward statement of the living issue of the day. People may not subscribe to his political creed, but there is no trouble in understanding what his creed is. Not a single unkind or harsh word fell from his lits during the whole discussion. The consingle unkind or harsh word fell from his lips during the whole discussion. The contrast was so marked that it did not fail to make a deep and lasting impression on our people. Mr. Mason's plain statement of the tariff question will be remembered and discussed around the fireside long after Mr. Wilson's declamation is forgotten. The Democracy not being satisfied with the result of the discussion, called a meeting at the Court House for this evening, when Mr. Price, the Democratic candidate for Senate, in this district, spent an hour and a half in the Court House for this evening, when Mr. Price, the Democratic candidate for Senate, in this district, spent an hour and a half in reply to Mr. Mason. The people not yet being satisfied with the answer to his argument called for Mr. Gilkeson, our talented young Democratic candidate for the Legislature, who hammered away at Mason for a time, and yet not satisfied with the answer they called for Mr. Florney an eloquent young lawyer. Florney tried his hand, and still the verilet of the people is that the argument of Mr. Mason in favor of a fair protective tariff remains unanswered.

When the meeting this evening adjourned, the crowd, though largely Democratic, flocked around Mr. Mason who was in the court room, and from the hearty hand-shaking it was plain that whatever the people of Romney think of Mr. Mason politically, yet personally they have the highest regard for him. The result of this discussion is, that while Mr. Mason will not carry Hampshire county yet he will get more votes than was ever received by any other Republican in this county. Let the Republicans of other counties do as well as Hampshire and his election is assured.

Mr. Mason is just returning from an extensive trip through the interior counties. Wilson proposes to go back over the same ground. This is characteristic of the party. It always takes the back track.
